KERBSIDE PARKING THROUGH A DAY

Share of bays occupied at each hour, the average of the streets, 2019.

Bays occupied, weekdays 8 am to 8 pm

56.3%

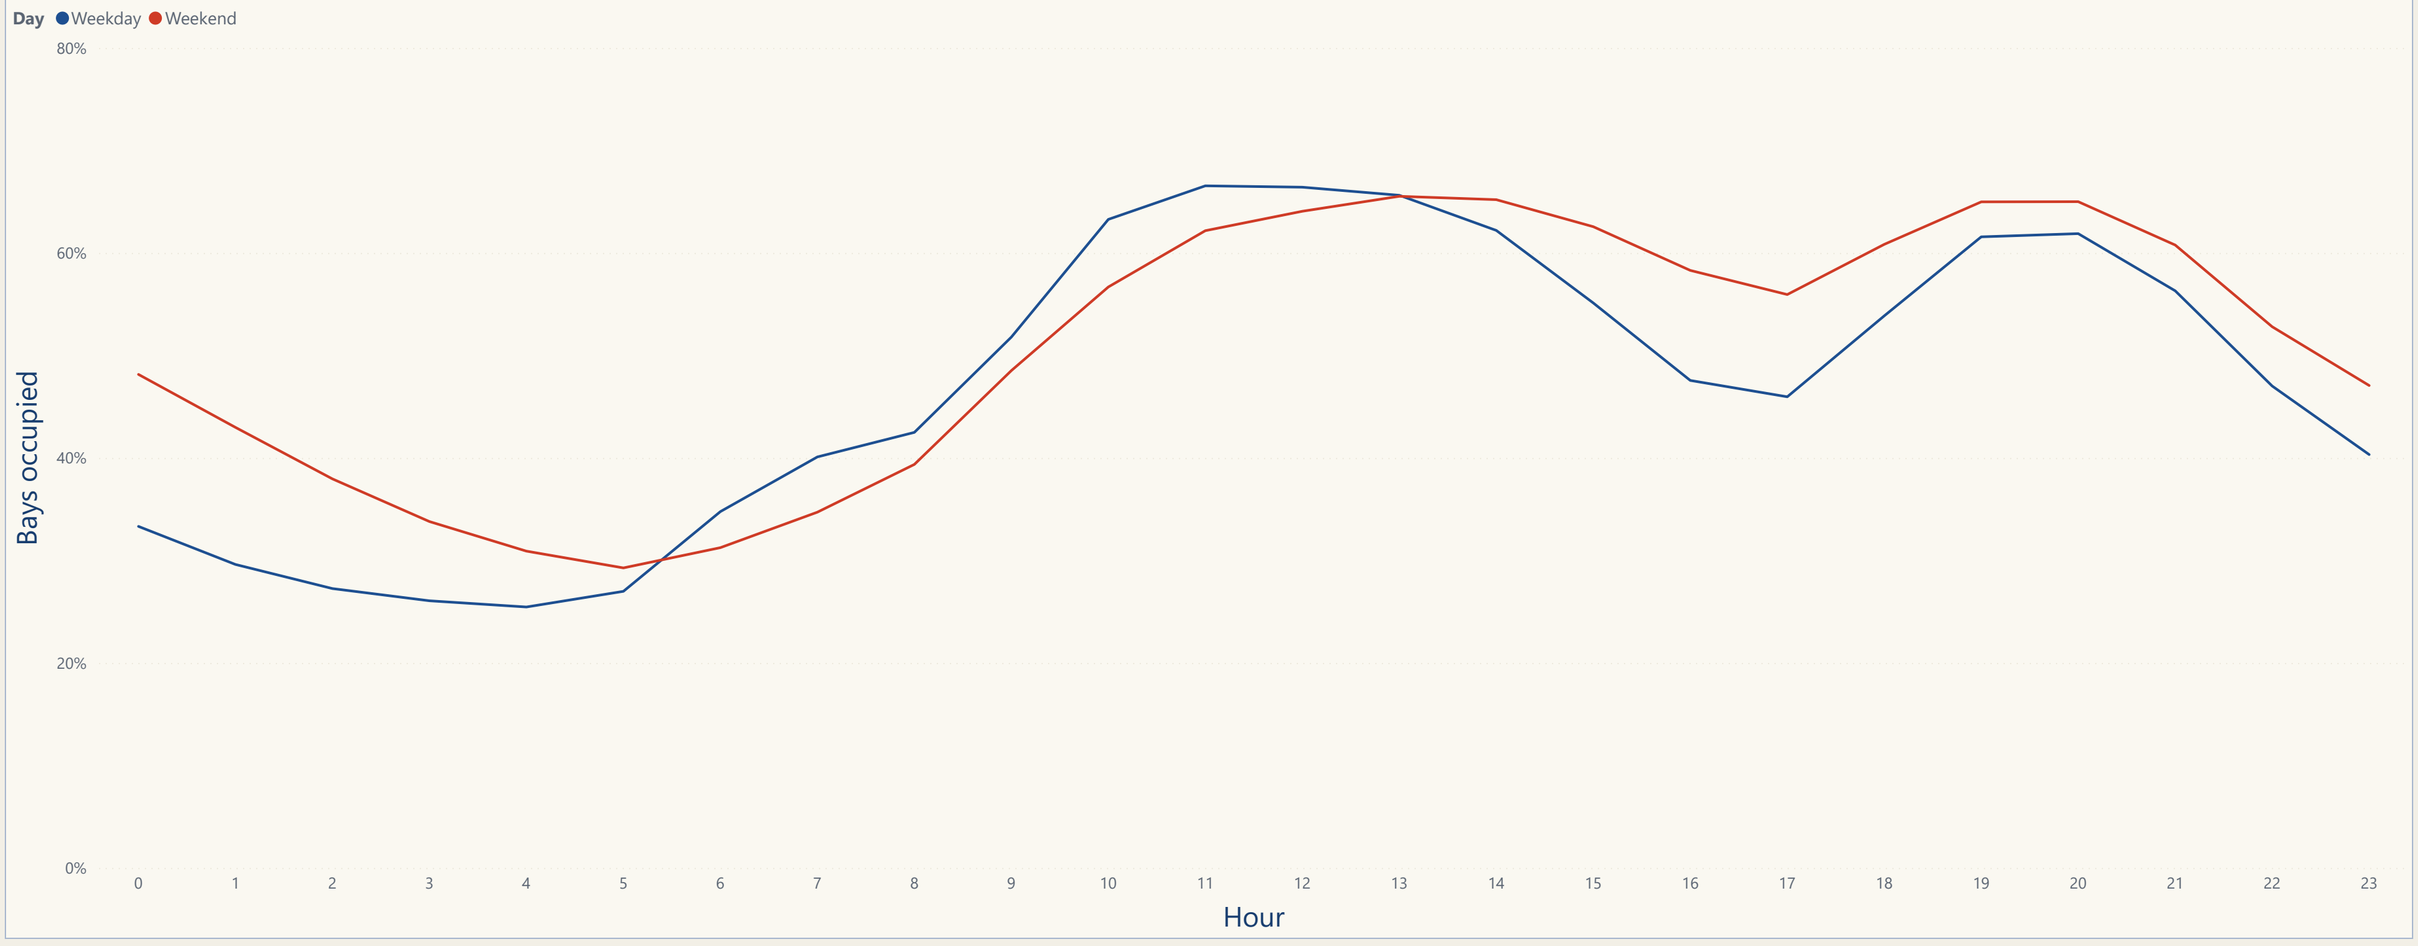

Average stay, minutes

58.8

Cars a bay a day

10.8

Bays occupied by hour

On-street Car Parking Sensor Data 2019 and road corridors: City of Melbourne Open Data, CC BY 4.0. Kerb keyed in Plotlay (getplotlay.com). Map context: ABS ASGS 2021 and Vicmap Hydro (CC BY 4.0). How full is read at half past each hour; a stay is 2 minutes to 24 hours; residents with permits are exempt from limits.

THE STREETS

Bays occupied for the hour and day picked (11 am on a weekday when none is).

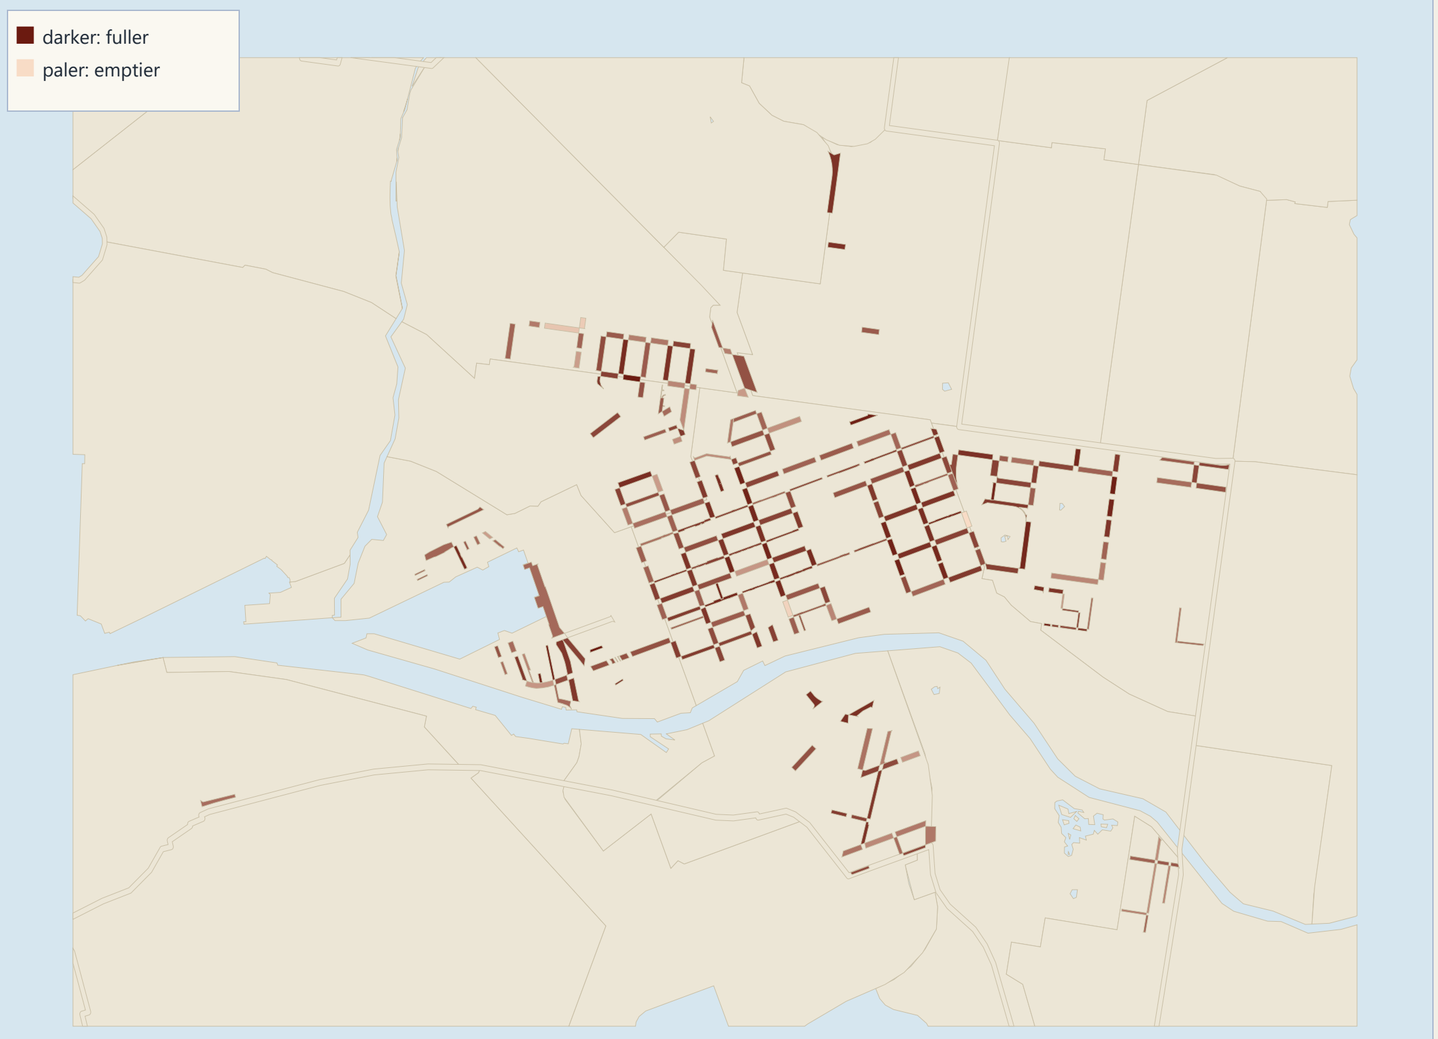

Hour

11

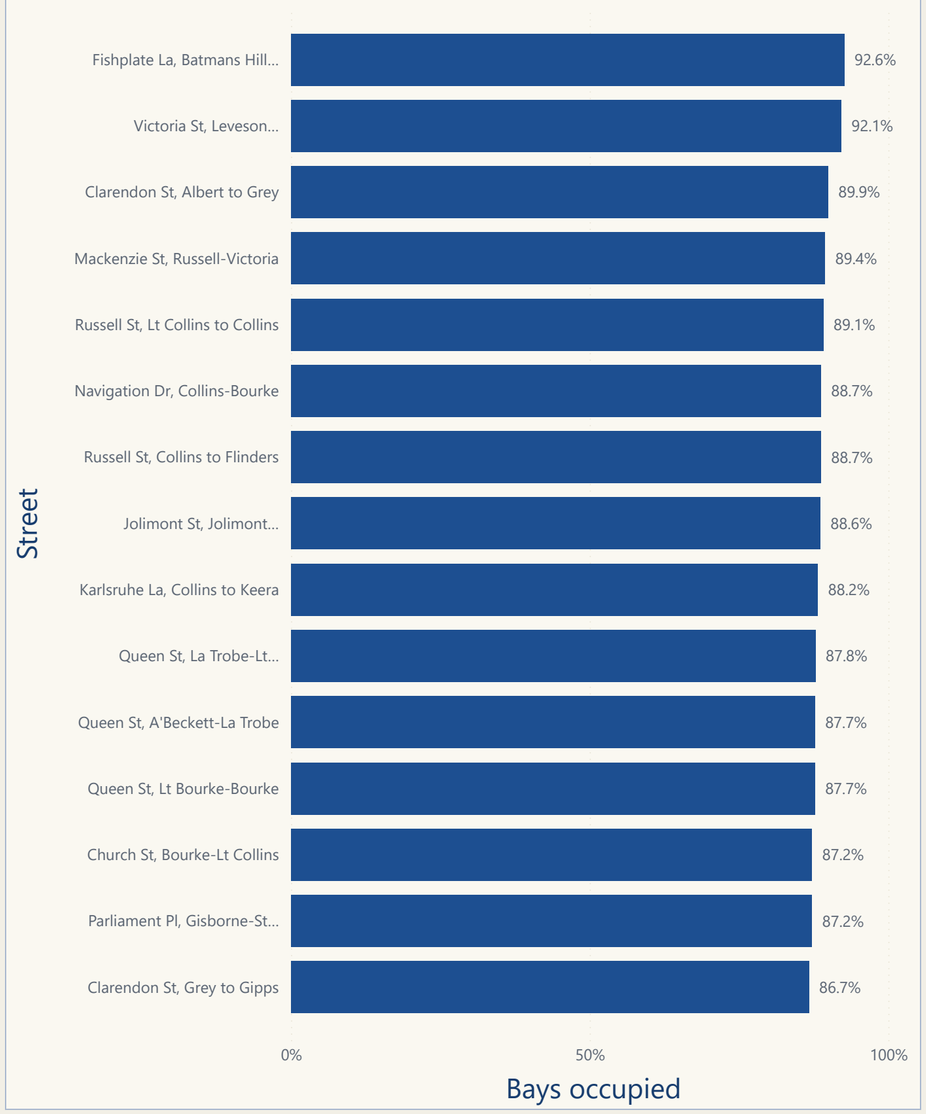

Day

Weekday

Bays occupied in the hour and day picked

The 15 fullest streets in the hour and day picked

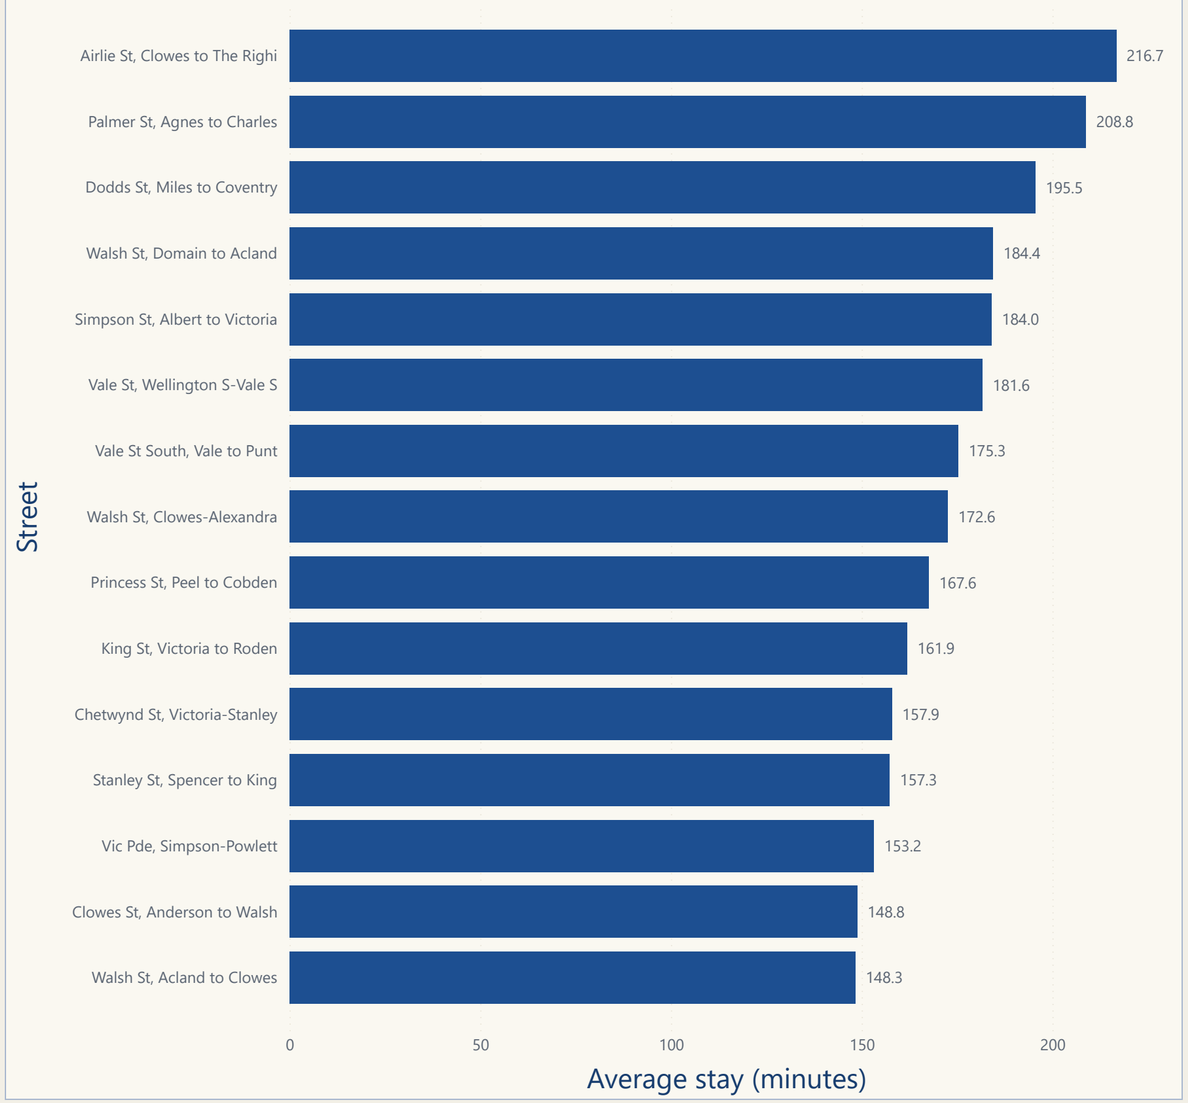

On-street Car Parking Sensor Data 2019 and road corridors: City of Melbourne Open Data, CC BY 4.0. Kerb keyed in Plotlay (getplotlay.com). Map context: ABS ASGS 2021 and Vicmap Hydro (CC BY 4.0). How full is read at half past each hour; a stay is 2 minutes to 24 hours; residents with permits are exempt from limits.

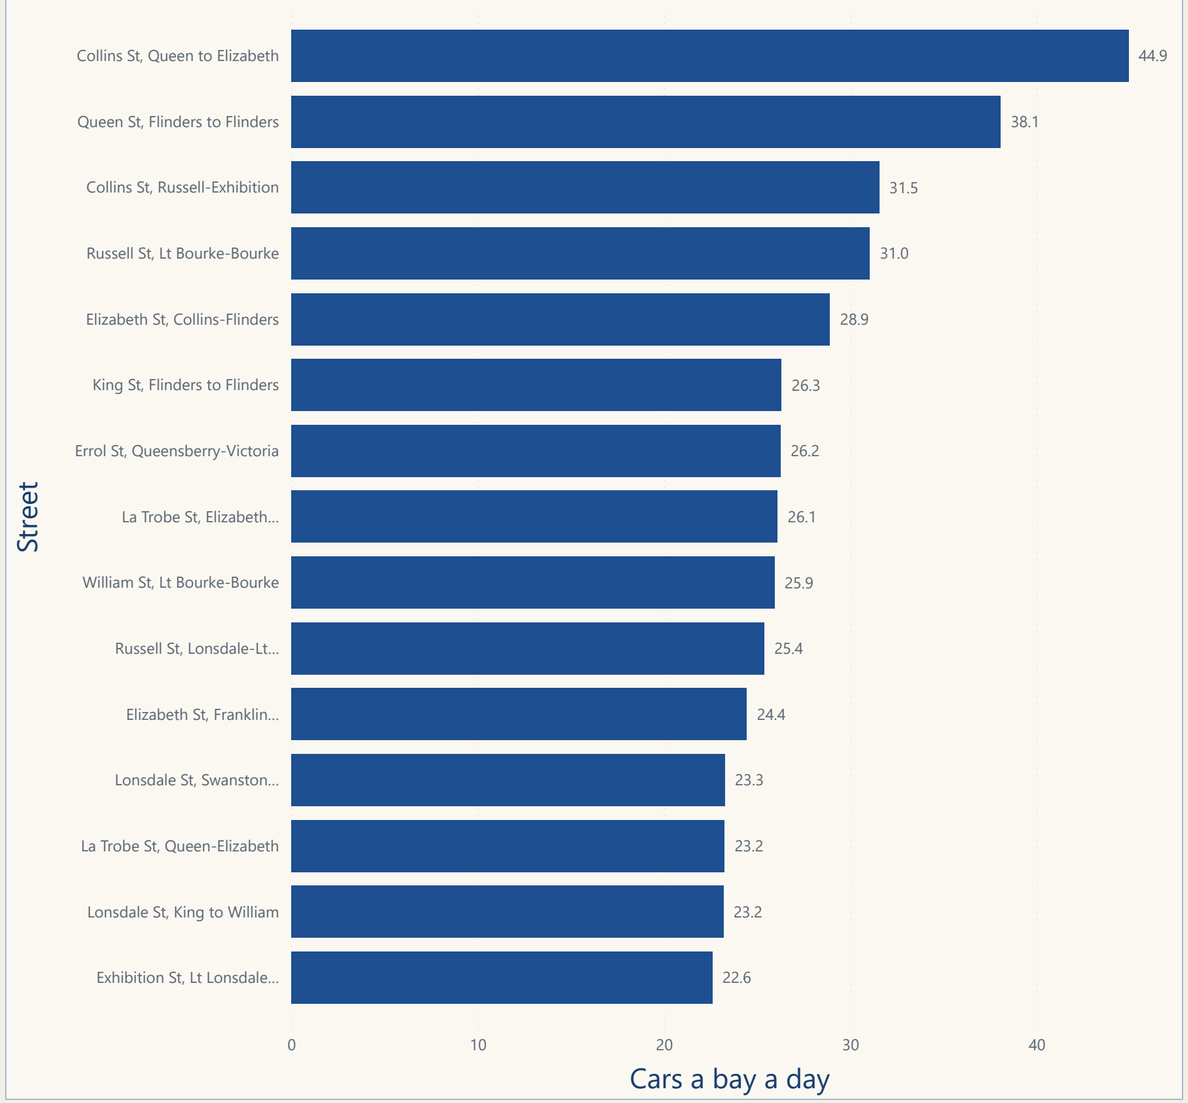

HOW LONG CARS STAY

Average stay and cars a bay a day by street, 2019.

The 15 streets with the longest average stay, minutes (10 bays or more)

The 15 streets with the most cars a bay a day (10 bays or more)

On-street Car Parking Sensor Data 2019 and road corridors: City of Melbourne Open Data, CC BY 4.0. Kerb keyed in Plotlay (getplotlay.com). Map context: ABS ASGS 2021 and Vicmap Hydro (CC BY 4.0). How full is read at half past each hour; a stay is 2 minutes to 24 hours; residents with permits are exempt from limits.